

GOVERNOR KINKEAD WITH DRAWS!

Gov. John H. Kinkead has decided not to present his name to the Republican State Convention for renomination.

BREVITIES.

Judge Sabin opened Court in Carson yesterday.

The political situation is becoming very interesting.

There are about nineteen "dark horses" for Governor.

The public schools reopened yesterday, with Prof. Carr, as Principal.

Sheriff Ben Fitch, of Elko, is taking points from the Republican Convention.

Mr. E. A. Scott, editor and proprietor of the Battle Mountain Messenger, is in town.

Sam Davis, Judge Harris and Deacon Parkinson are here representing the Carson press.

Frank Bell has returned from Eureka, where he has been establishing a Telephone Exchange.

Jerry Schoelling and C. O. Powning were excused as U. S. jurors yesterday, until Monday next.

The western delegates to the Democratic State Convention leave for the Base Range this morning.

Col. H. G. Shaw, the talented editor of the Enterprise, is in attendance upon the State Convention. His observations will be highly interesting reading.

A large number of delegates and visitors have already visited the Insane Asylum. They all wonder how so much work was done for so little money. Many say the contractors must have stolen the brick and refused to pay the laborers.

J. F. Bailey, clerk of the Lake House, has received a letter from El Vesey, formerly lessee of the house. He writes that he has completed a large contract for furnishing ties to the Northern Pacific Railroad and is about to undertake another still larger one.

"I wish I had some candy," said one of a group of children sitting at the roadside. "And I wish I had a nice big wax doll," said another; while a sweet-faced, fair-haired child, signed for a gold neck-lace and locket, which can be bought of Uncle Harris, for $12, 221 Kearney St., San Francisco.

M. F. Smith, from Virginia is one of the most active of political prowlers at present in Reno. Matt used to be a prominent member of the Comstock police force and is a thorough worker. Besides he possesses a host of acquaintances both in Reno and Virginia and is thoroughly posted in the doctrine of "Ways and Means."

Rich Diggings.

In the hills just back of Washoe City a very rich strike has been made. A shaft 30 feet deep has been sunk on one ledge, and rock which assays over $20,000 to the ton in gold taken out. Another location near by has a tunnel run in it and rich silver ore found. The owners, Messrs. Harris and Perry, have two men at work now and will increase the force as soon as arrangements for crushing are made. They have a large pile on the dump now and expect to realize several thousand dollars from it—enough probably to erect a mill with. Several other locations have been made near by, and all find good ore.

A Soliloquy

John W. Mackay arrived here last evening, and after a number of hurried confabs with different Renoiters, departed for Virginia. The general soliloquy after he left was—O-phen a chance to Chollar some points from him. There must be some Bullion for me in the stock market for here he arrives. Hile, and neither gloomy Nor-crow. I'd like to be able to carry some information out of him—But hold p'raps I can get John to do it. In Union there is strength. If I succeed it will be the Crown(wing) Point in my stock career. I'll put it'll feel Savage.

A Constant Menace

Mr. Bo-chia-taxpayer and a good citizen. Still he should have more regard for the lives and property of his fellow citizens, than to store a whole car load of coal oil in his cellar, beneath one of the most important highways of the town. Were a fire to occur anywhere near Bosch's on Commercial Row, this coal oil would be a terrible thing for the Breuen to fight against. It is hoped that the danger will be removed, having the oil stored in a warehouse some distance from town, thus following the example of other oil companies.

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

Labors of the First Day—The Various Committees and Their Reports.

At noon the delegates to the Republican State Convention assembled at the Theater and were called to order by Hon. I. L. Ragna, Chairman of the State Central Committee. On motion of Senator Hobart, of Eureka, seconded by Senator King, of Lyon, Hon. W. W. Bishop, of Eureka, was elected temporary Chairman.

W. J. Sutherland, of Virginia, and J. F. Alexander, of Reno, were placed in nomination for Secretary. Sutherland was elected. W. L. Bechtel, of Reno, and Hy Doane, of Aurora, were elected Assistant Secretaries. A. K. Lamb, of Reno, was elected Sergeant-at-Arms.

On motion the delegations from the several counties were authorized to name one delegate each to serve as members of the Committees on Credentials, Permanent Organization and Order of Business, and Platform and Resolutions, and reported as follows:

Reported, asking for more time, stating that it had been impossible to prepare the platform.

THE PLATFORM.

The Committee concluded their labors at a late hour last evening, and will present the following:

To the Chairman and Members of the Republican State Convention of Nevada:

Your Committee on Platform and Resolutions respectfully submit the following:

Resolved, That the honor and glory of the Republic, its continued peace, prosperity and progress will be best served by the perpetuation and continued success of the Republican party. We declare our fidelity to its principles as expressed in the Chicago platform of 1880, and as further embodied in its great history from its organization to the present time.

Resolved, That in the tragic death of President Garfield our country has suffered a deplorable loss, and the Republican party mourns for one who consecrated a noble and heroic life to the vindication of its great purposes.

Resolved, That we have faith in the prudent and sagacious administration of President Arthur and believe it will result in promoting the best interests of the country.

Resolved, That the presence in our midst of a servile race of aliens, incapable of assimilation with our institutions, is a perpetual menace to all classes of society. The relief extended to our people by the passage of a law excluding the Chinese by a Republican Congress and approved by a Republican President is a genuine cause of satisfaction. We are in favor of strenuously enforcing the provisions of said law, and we pledge the Republican party to labor now and henceforth to secure such further legislation as will permanently exclude the Chinese.

Resolved, That we recognize the paramount importance of maintaining unimpaired the free public school system of the State. We shall defend it against sectarian, political or other improper influences, and we favor such additional legislation as the condition and wants of the common schools of the State may require. As free institutions they should be so conducted as to satisfy poor and rich alike, and upon this principle we urge the adoption of some system by which this State shall furnish the text books at the lowest possible figure.

Resolved, That owing to the remote position of Nevada from the seaboard and the entire absence of navigable water and competing lines of railroads to and from commercial centers, we demand from Congress such wholesome and effective legislation as will place our people on terms of equality in respect to transportation charges with communities specially favored by railroad monopolies.

Resolved, That we pledge the Republican party of Nevada to such course of enlightened legislation as will extend to railroad and all other corporations doing business in this State the same protection and the same rights before the law as are accorded to individuals—no more and no less.

Resolved, That we are in favor of the Government of the United States establishing a postal telegraph service, and operating the same in connection with the Postoffice Department.

Resolved, That the coinage of silver should be placed upon the same basis as that of gold, and we invoke early Congressional legislation to that end.

Resolved, That it is the duty of the Legislature to enact such laws as will result in the purification of the jury box and better promote the administration of justice.

Resolved, That it is the duty of the next Legislature to pass such laws as shall reduce the expenses of the State and county governments to the lowest possible limit consistent with the requirements of the public service.

Resolved, That the earnest attention of Congress and the State Legislature is directed to the subject of codifying the laws relating to the location and working of mineral lands to the end that legitimate prospecting and the development of our chief source of wealth may be best promoted.

Resolved, That the appropriation by a Republican Congress for the payment of pensions to invalid Union soldiers and to the veterans of the Mexican war is the discharge of a debt of honor and law—a generous remembrance of our country's defenders in its supreme hour of peril.

No Better Stand-By than Nevada.

J. H. Bailey, the well known clerk and bookkeeper of the Lake House, has received a letter from Ed. Vesey, formerly lessee of the hotel and well acquainted in the county. He writes that he has just completed a large contract to furnish ties to the Northern Pacific Railroad, and is about to undertake another still larger. He states that in his opinion, that northern country is no better than Nevada, in fact not so good. While the excitement of road building aces, there will, of course, be a fictitious prosperity. But it will speedily fall flat and dead, when the railroad is completed and the reaction takes place.

Heliotrope or Hellograph.

The army of surveyors in town are divided among themselves. There never were a jollier set of fellows than the surveyors and their field boys, but they will become as hopelessly tangled over a Greek word as the deepest professor in Yale or Harvard. The subject in question is Heliotrope or Hellograph, an instrument used for the purpose of signaling by means of the sun's rays. While one side affirms that the instrument is a heliotrope, the opposite side declares that it is a hellograph, and thus the matter stands. They are liable to bankrupt themselves.

Hang This Up.

Day before yesterday a dilapidated specimen entered a saloon in town and cheerfully called for a drink. While he was imbibing the bartender wishing to prove sociable remarked:

"This is Friday, hangman's day."
"Well then, hang up this drink to my account" responded the bum as he swallowed a bumper of whiskey, bowed and departed, before the bartender could reach his stuffed club.

The Glendale School.

Miss O'Leary, teacher of the public school at Glendale, arrived on the train from the East last Sunday evening and left for Glendale yesterday. Miss O'Leary is one of the best teachers in the department and is liked equally well by both scholars and authorities. The school is turning out thorough scholars, and is one of the best disciplined in the county.

Coming Theatricals

Nelse Hammond received a communication from New York a few days ago requesting that the Theater be held engaged Saturday, October 28th, on which night the Frank Mordanant Troupe will appear in the American comedy of "Old Sinsplatters." Ben Stern, well known in this State, is the company's business agent.

Stylish Quarters.

Red-hoss Thompson is disporting himself in stylish quarters in town. He has secured painted chambers on the north side of the Plaza, and is entertaining lots of delegates.

The Board of Direction, composed of some of the most prominent names in public life, including members of the Supreme Court, Senators, Members of Congress, Army and Navy officers of high rank, and the first citizens of Washington, send the following to the press:

A National Bazaar, Art and Industrial Exposition will be held in the rotunda and adjacent halls of the National Capitol at Washington, D. C., November 25th to December 31 (inclusive), 1892, as authorized by joint resolution of the Senate and House of Representatives, August 7, 1892. The object of this undertaking is to raise funds with which to erect a statue in this city to the memory of General James A. Garfield, late President of the United States, which work is in the hands of a committee of the Society of the Army of the Cumberland, who have already collected for this purpose some twenty thousand dollars, and expect, with the results of the exposition, to have a sufficient sum with which to erect a work befitting the great name it is proposed to commemorate.

The art exhibition will be under the direction of the leading artists resident in Washington. It is hoped that artists throughout the entire country, professional and amateurs, will aid the work by contributing some one work—as a gift to the fund—to be sold for its benefit, and be willing to exhibit others, under such rules and regulations as may be determined by the Board of Direction. All persons desiring to contribute in any way to this work are cordially invited to do so, and to proceed in such manner as their judgment may dictate.

Contributions from the ladies in the way of needle and fancy work are especially invited and anticipated as one of the more prominent features of the exposition. To manufacturers this exhibition offers opportunity second only to the Centennial Exposition. Occurring on the eve of the assembling of Congress, and at the season of the year when all the foreign representatives are at their legations, every exhibit will have the attention not only of our own representatives but of the representatives of all the civilized nations, as well as the representatives of the press, who will gladly make mention of all worthy exhibits; this, with the fact that each donation or exhibit contributes so much to a work that must commend itself to every patriotic citizen. All exhibits will bear the name of artist, manufacturer, etc., and will remain in place until the close of the exposition. Arrangements for transportation of exhibits are being made, and details will be given on application to the Board of Direction, room 90 to 96, Ebbitt House, Washington, D. C.

Fate of the Apostles

All the apostles were assaulted by the enemies of the Master. They were called to seal their doctrines with their blood, and nobly did they bear the trial. Matthew suffered martyrdom by being slain with a sword at a distant city of Ethiopia. Mark expired at Alexandria, after having been cruelly dragged through the streets of that city. Luke was hung on an olive-tree in the classic land of Greece. John was put into a caldron of boiling oil, but escaped death in a miraculous manner, and was afterward banished to Patmos. Peter was crucified at Rome with his head downward. James the Great was beheaded at Jerusalem. James the Less was thrown from a lofty pinnacle of the temple, and then he was beaten to death with a fuller's club. Paul was hanged up against a pillar at Hieropolis in Phrygia. Bartholomew was flayed alive. Andrew was bound to the cross, whence he preached to his persecutors until he died. Thomas was run through the body with a lance in the East Indies. Jude was shot to death with arrows. Matthias was first stoned and then beheaded. Barnabas, of the Gentiles, was stoned to death by the Jews at Salonic. Paul, after various tortures, and persecutions, was at length beheaded at Rome by the Emperor Nero.

The earth at its equator revolves around seventeen times faster than runs the fastest railroad train; and moves through a space, in its annual journey around the sun, at the great velocity of nineteen miles a second. This latter speed is so great that should the earth encounter an interposing body sufficiently large to stop it, the heat generated by the blow would volatilize everything—converting rocks and all into vapor.

A boy says in his composition that "onions are the vegetables that make you sick if you don't eat them yourself."

PAY YOUR ASSESSMENTS.

[Carson Appeal.]

Let the State Central Committee see this year that every man who is nominated on the State ticket shall pay his assessment on or before a certain date or be withdrawn. Let every County Committee see that the same rule is rigidly enforced and that men who want lucrative offices pay as they go and contribute a just share toward the expenses of electing them. Every newspaper is interested in the matter financially for the reason that most of the money collected by the assessments of candidates goes to pay for printing and advertising. It has frequently happened, as every publisher knows, that the bill of the newspapers have been subjected to discounts, sometimes amounting to nearly half the amount because this or that man has neglected to pay his legitimate assessment, and the Central Committee has neglected to enforce the rule as was its plain duty to do. Men have held lucrative State and county offices and while drawing good monthly salaries have still refused to pay the amount due the Committee, which in turn could not pay legitimate bills presented. It might not be a bad idea for the Central Committee at their next meeting to draft the following resolution: Resolved—That each candidate for a State office who has been nominated by the Convention shall pay the amount assessed by this Committee on or about the 15th day of September, and it shall be the duty of the Treasurer and Secretary to report all delinquents by the 15th, whose places shall be declared vacant, to be filled by the Committee, unless the committee decide to pay the amount out of their own pockets. County Committees could adopt a similar resolution. The press should insist upon this rule, recollecting before it is too late that the laborer is worthy of his hire.

The Newer Arithmetic

A soldier's widow in the service of the Government has a salary of $800 per year and pays a political assessment of two per cent. How much does she have left? If the Governor of Missouri pardons State Prison convicts at the rate of three for every nine days how long will it take to pardon 528 convicts? A Wisconsin school teacher had nineteen scholars and she figured up at the end of three months that she had bestowed 128 links on the school. Allowing that one boy received seventeen of them, and that three of the girls escaped entirely, how many linkings did each of the others receive? The average fisherman gets four nibbles to one bite, and three bites to a fish, and half his fish are not worth carrying home. At this rate how long will it take a fisherman to exhaust the supply of sheep-heads and dog-fish? The friends of a certain man chip in four cents apiece and purchase a sponge to present him on his birthday as emblematical of his daily life. The certain man let himself loose on the donors and damages each one's head to the amount of $3.47. How much is each donor out of pocket? A man pays fifty cents extra to take laughing-gas while having a tooth pulled. The dentist could have pulled six as well as one, and without any further cost. How much did the patient lose by being so stingy of his molar? The candy eaten by a school-girl costs just as much as her school-books; the peanuts she devours cost more than her singing lessons; the ice-cream costs more than her French, and the gas and fuel she consumes while sparking foots up twice the cost of learning her to paint landscapes on old jugs and pitchers. Therefore, how many daughters must a man have to be rich? A young man wages fifty cents that he can put a billiard ball into his mouth, and he wins the bet. A surgeon charges him $7 for the hour's work in removing it. What was the exact gain in being smart? An alderman pays a reporter $5 to write him a speech favoring the erection of a new school house, but after delivering eleven cents worth of the oration he is informed that there is no question before the meeting, and he falls back and breaks a pair of suspenders worth thirty-five cents. How much is the great man out of pocket?

To Determine the Weight of Live Cattle.

Measure in inches girth around breast just behind shoulder blade and the length of back from tail to fore part of shoulder blade. Multiply girth by length and divide by 144. If girth is less than three feet, multiply quotient by 11; if between three and five, by 10; between five and seven, by 9; between seven and nine by 8. If animal is lean deduct one-twentieth from result; or take girth and length in feet, multiply square of girth by length, and multiply product by 3.36. Live weight multiplied by .005 gives net weight—nearly.

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

The Republican Convention, true to the instincts of its being promptly on time, met at the Theater yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. The hurry of the organization last Monday had detracted the attention of the many delegates from the extremely handsome way in which the hall was decorated, and only yesterday were the decorations noticed. A fine flag, draperies with red, white and blue, festooned the arch above the Speaker's head, while all around, the balconies were tastefully trimmed with bunting or drapery. A fine portrait of Garfield was hung back of the Speaker's head, ornamented on either side with handsome portraits of Washington and Lincoln. The whole interior of the theater was decorated in the tastiest manner and reflected credit on those who designed it.

THE PERSONNEL OF THE CONVENTION.

The delegates presented the appearance of an extremely fine and intelligent body of men—a body of men that could not be sought but Republicans. While bald heads were not scarce, neither were young craniums, and the almost unanimity prevailed throughout the whole of the Convention's proceedings, in marked contrast to the ordinary conduct of Democratic conventions.

THE MORNING'S ROUTINE.

The first business before the attention of the Convention was the reading and confirmation of the platform, the Committee on Platform having reported. All of the resolutions were accepted without demur, until the seventh had been read, when an amendment to this, as follows, was offered:

And further, that the Republican party favors and demands, at the hands of the State Legislature, legislation regulating and equalizing freights and fares on all railroads within this State. This excited hot discussion, and the cause of it may be plainly perceived when the original resolution, as can be seen in yesterday's JOURNAL, is compared with the unamended amendment. Quite stirring speeches were made, in which the doctrine was plainly laid down that the railroads were the servants and not the masters of the people. The eighth, ninth, eleventh, twelfth and thirteenth resolutions of the platform were then adopted with little or no debate.

A REVISION OF THE CONSTITUTION.

Mr. Foley's supplemental to the platform was then read, as follows:

Resolved, That in the judgment of this Convention the Legislature, when next convened, should make the necessary provisions for a convention to revise the entire Constitution of this State. That in providing for such convention, well guarded restrictions should be made, defining the number of delegates, their compensation, and fixing the duration of its session. That we believe such convention is imperatively demanded by the urgent necessities of the times, and among others for the following cogent reasons: First—to so change the fundamental law as to secure as early as may be the equal and uniform taxation of all property subjected thereto. Second—to regulate and render equal and just to all the rates of passage and freight upon all railroads doing business in this State, to the end that our leading industries may be fostered and not oppressed, built up and not overthrown, and third—to secure the reduction of the expenses of the State in minimum by dispensing with all unnecessary officers and employees, rendering more speedy and economical the collection of public revenue, the execution of the law and the general administration of justice.

LIVELY TIMES.

The platform and amendment having been adopted, the Chairman announced that nominations were in order. Instantly a noise like the starting of a buzz-saw started through the chamber, and delegates tackled each other like hornets. Judge Wells was apparently startled, and springing up, he cried out and asked for a recess. But the humor of the Convention was to get speedily through, and "No! No! No!" was the general cry.

MR. STROTHER NOMINATED FOR GOVERNOR.

J. A. Stephens, of Storey, arose, and in placing in nomination E. Strother, of Storey, as the Convention's candidate for Governor, said:

Gentlemen of the Convention: Upon your action to-day in the selection of your candidates, especially of a standard bearer at the head of your nominations, depends the ultimate success of your ticket for the next four years. An accidental acquisition of power had afforded the Democracy, an opportunity to carry out the principles and promises given by them to the people four years ago. 1st, A reduction in taxes, and 2d, Forcing the railroads to do common justice to the people. How magnificently has the Democracy lied! So barefacedly have they lied that to the mind of every lover of his country the name Democracy is a synonym of perfidy and fraud. This Convention need only put up a good, honest ticket, from top to bottom, and he would guarantee a handsome majority of over five hundred. He would name for the Governorship the Hon. E. Strother, of Storey, a gentleman who had resided in the State for 22 years, and whose reputation was without stain or reproach. Courteous and upright, he was a model in business life. As a register in bankruptcy he had ceased his connection with public life with the cleanest and purest hands, leaving a remembrance of a high legal acumen and honesty beyond question. The commonwealth was in need of both a successful and economical manager at the present time. As for his Republicanism, Mr. Strother's fidelity to his party and devotion to its principles had never been for a moment doubted. Foremost in the fight his services were ever for his party. "I am aware," said Mr. Stephens, "that Enoch Strother has been stated to possess no personal magnetism, but that he is cold and repellent. I have ever observed that it is with personal magnetism as with electro magnetism—the magnet will attract the lightest of objects towards itself, and so it is with so-called personal magnetism; the lightest brained gather about the centre of attraction. Honesty of character, purity of hands and industry of purpose are virtues with which Mr. Strother is pre-eminent; and I ask his nomination at the hands of this Convention."

ALVARO EVANS.

Mr. Varian, as the spokesman of the solid Washoe delegation, stated that he would put in nomination Alvaro Evans, a man of the people. "Clothed in honesty, and the pride of conscious manhood," he comes before you supported by no factions nor cliques, and asks for your approval of him as nominee for Governor. I am fully aware that for days past combinations have been formed in the vain hope to defeat him. Last night, all night long, whipped messengers were spurred through town in the endeavor to defeat him. They can not bear to see a self-poised man who can hold his own. Washoe presents to the Convention the name of a man who was born 53 years ago in a clearing in Ohio—who in '49 crossed the plains and hewed his way to fortune. He was no orator, but of a scholarly turn, and achieved by his own sturdy endeavors a fair scholarly education. Alone and unaided he had forced his way to his present position of wealth, influence and prospective Governor of Nevada. Until to-day this citizen of nearly sixty years had never aspired to office, and some have sought to insinuate that he had no right to aspire. Did wealth or poverty cut any figure in the nomination? Is he not one of the people? In the ordinary sense of the term he is far from being one of the boys, yet he is near the heart-strings of the multitude of toilers. Throughout the State, the farmers and cattle men are fighting tooth and toe-nail for him. In Storey, too, the hard working toilers are favoring him, because he is a known friend of the workingman—having been a toiler himself. He expects to be supported by no clique, corporation or sack. Is it now time to say that any citizen may not present his claim for the suffrages of his fellow citizens, before a Republican Convention, unless he first humbly inquires whether his name is pleasing to this, that or the other man or corporation? It ought not to be so. A convention is holy ground and should be untrammelled. * * I stopped along the road and found among the farmers, the utmost unanimity of sentiment in favor of one of their avocation for Governor. But whether nominated or not, Mr. Evans will heartily support the nominees of this Convention."

Mr. Lindsay seconded the nomination of Mr. Evans and made quite an impressive speech. He said: "It behooves to put the best foot forward oftentimes. Two years ago a thief in the night from yonder mountain top stole down from his eyrie, and invading the Temple of Liberty, — sacked it! It is not necessary for me to give his name or portrait. He was aided by his partner, a member of the National Central Committee. I speak of the bonanza firm. Another arm of this octopus is now being stretched forward to destroy our party."

Mr. Thos. Robinson nominated Wm. Woodburn.

The candidates appeared and addressed the Convention.

Susanville Notes.

The Democratic County Convention met yesterday in the Court House and nominated their ticket. There were six aspirants for the office of Sheriff. After eight ballots Jerry Leaky received the nomination. W. T. Masten, candidate for Clerk, met with no opposition and was nominated by acclamation. D. C. Hyer received the same for Treasurer. A. L. Shinn was nominated District Attorney. There being no aspirants for Surveyor, no nomination was made. Eugene Williams was chosen as Supt. of Schools. Tom N. Long for Wempe, and W. F. Lambuth, were chosen as Supervisors. The delegates to the joint Assembly and Senatorial Convention were instructed to vote for C. McClaskey for Assemblyman, and T. P. Ford, of the Bisbee Tribune, for Senator. The ticket does not meet with the approbation that was anticipated, and the Republicans are jubilant therat. The Republican Convention will meet next Saturday.

Heliograph or Hellograph.

Reno, Sept. 4, 1892.

EDITOR JOURNAL.—Dear Sir:—A controversy has arisen among our ranks, in regard to the proper appellation of the instrument used of late, to flash signals by means of the sun's rays, from one station to another distant one. A claims that it is called the Heliograph, and that only. B claims, that it is besides known as the Heliotrope. Which is correct? Please inform us.

Your's,

SURVEYORS.

Both terms Heliograph and Heliotrope, are correct, though the former would perhaps have the field on the claim of priority. With the past few years, an instrument has been invented in England, and a subsequent one in America, which largely surpasses the old Heliotrope; and to which the name of Helio-graph has been attached. It is now being used in Indian warfare in Arizona and New Mexico. The name however can not be found in Webster's Dictionary, and will not appear there till the next revision some years hence.

A Curious Atmosphere.

For several days and nights past, the whole of Reno Valley has been surclouded with a heavy hazy atmosphere not quite a fog, but almost that. Old residents claimed that it was due to extensive fires in the adjacent mountains, but local scientific sharps adduced totally different reasons. They claimed that it was due to fires in San Joaquin, or other California valleys; and that the smoke was brought over the mountains by the expiring trade winds. Professor Eimbeck, chief of the U. S. Geodetic Survey, was brought forward as a witness and his testimony was strongly in favor of the latter theory. The atmosphere of Reno, at any rate, is uncommonly hazy and the inhabitants are at liberty to embrace either of the two schools, divided on the question.

A Fine Dairy.

A. Banta and W. J. Marsh, of Reno, have purchased a fine dairy in Hope Valley, Cal. They have one hundred cows in the pasture and make a about seventy pounds of butter daily. They have a standing contract with Mason & Co. of Carson, for all they can make. Hope Valley is so high that the dairying season lasts only from June 1st to Oct. 1st. The rest of the year the stock is driven to Sheridan, where the butter-making is continued. Hope Valley grass makes first class butter.

A Prosperous Business Man.

J. J. Quinn has just purchased the south half of lot five, fronting on the east side of Virginia street, a distance of twenty-five feet, adjoining his present brick store. The purchase price was two thousand dollars and it makes a handsome addition to his property, the total frontage of which on Virginia street is now forty-four feet, with a depth of a hundred and forty. Mr. Quinn is a solid resident.

District Judges.

The Republican delegations from Elko and Humboldt met yesterday and on motion of Wood, of Winnemucca, seconded by Clark, of Elko, unanimously nominated Judge R. R. Bigelow for Judge of the Fourth District.

The Lyon and Esmeralda delegations unanimously nominated Gen. M. A. Murphy for Judge of the Third District.

State Central Committee.

Immediately after the adjournment of the Convention yesterday the State Central Committee met and organized by the election of C. C. Stevenson as Chairman, J. Minor Taylor as Secretary, and W. W. Hobart, Treasurer.

Drowned.

Yesterday afternoon, while Johnny Larcumbe was driving his team across the head of the Highland ditch, one of his boys fell out of the wagon into the ditch, and was drowned before the frantic father could rescue him.

Two young couples of Coshocton, in Ohio, thought it would be a romantic idea to elope down the river to Marietta by moonlight in a row-boat. The trip was only half made, however, when the men were arrested for stealing the boat, and the girls were sent home alone and unmarried.
